Nursing, Unlimited Options

Nurses practice in an unlimited variety of settings. Although healthcare facilities of one kind or another engage most nurses, one finds nurses anywhere there are people who have the potential for getting sick or hurt... schools, office buildings, manufacturing plants, cruise ships, combat zones... ANYWHERE!!! Salute to nurses.

Book Excerpt

Against the World

"Intro to Nursing should be interesting today," Leslie said, "I never thought about joining the military as a nurse."

"Who would want to do that?" Frannie blurted. "You'd never get to see your husband and what woman would want to go to Vietnam anyway? And those drab uniforms are just awful; you can't accessorize anything."

"Frannie, that's not the point. The fantastic thing about a nursing career is that there are gobs of options and serving our country as a nurse is a great choice."
