VETERANS' DAY

Military service is a noble calling. Veterans often experience hardships that most of us will never face. Today we take a few moments out of our busy schedules to remember, respect, and give thanks to the brave men and women who have dedicated their lives to protecting our freedom.

Veterans, the Nurseketeers salute you!

Our military men and women are the brave face of America, even at the risk of their lives.

Veteran's Day

War is a tragic experience regardless of the nobility of the cause. Needless death, destruction of resources, and disruption of life as we know it are too high a price to pay. We'd be well-served to find a better way to address world conflict.

Against the World

Leslie sat open-mouthed, shaking her head slowly from side to side, and staring at the letter in her hand. "No... no... that couldn't happen..."

"WHAT couldn't happen?" Frannie asked.

"Paul. Paul's dead. His entire squad was killed in a bomb run. I can't believe he's gone. I was glad he went to Vietnam because he was doing something worthwhile with his life
