Author Insight

Thanksgiving

Where better than a peaceful farm to spend Thanksgiving.... with friends and family, scrumptious food that's fresh and delicious, and far from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Book Excerpt

Against the World

"That turkey was the best I've ever eaten," Gram said. "There's no comparison to one that you buy from the supermarket."

"Thank you, Maureen. Nearly everything on the table is farm fresh. The bread and pies are homemade and the cranberry sauce recipe has been in our family for generations. Thanksgiving is a day of gratitude for just about everything in our lives. You and I can sit and visit, while the kids enjoy themselves. We can clean up later after everyone has let the meal settle.

Robin and Katie ambled down the farm road with John between them. "It feels good to be home," John said. "The hustle and bustle of Stillwater gets to me; I miss the peace and quiet of the farm.
