PRESIDENT'S DAY began in 1885 as a celebration of George Washington's presidency on February 22nd, his birthday. In 1971, the holiday was moved to the third Monday of February and included Abraham Lincoln, celebrating our two most famous statesmen. Over the years, Presidents Day has evolved into a celebration of all US presidents and their accomplishments.

Each of us can choose our role models. On Presidents Day we can celebrate the accomplishments of those leaders who have impressed us the most.

Honesty is also the first chapter in the book of Trust... and in the book of Respect

Book Excerpt Against the World

President's Day

Our governmental leaders are challenged to present a platform in a way that everyone can benefit from supporting it. The bigger the issue, the greater the challenge. However, quality action can restore hope.

We need to organize our thoughts about our mission and determine how we want to convey our ideas to others. This is a huge issue and certainly one we can all get behind.
